A THOUGHTGive none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.—
1 Tim. 5:14.

When a man feels the reprobation of a friend seconded by his own heart, he is easily heated into resentment.—Dr. Johnson.

A REMEDY FOR HATRED.

The director of a big choral society urges community singing as a means of overcoming hate. Music, he explains, is the common language which breaks down barriers of class and caste and transcends the differences of race, color and religion.

"The world is in a turmoil of selfish differences," he continues. "Men's minds, where self-interest reigns, are ruling their hearts. We are losing our standards, our ideals, our spiritual communion between men and nations. Music stands foremost among the arts which hold by a universal appeal. Men are led much more by feeling than by reason. Men singing to Neither cannot hold hate one against the other."

But experience has shown that men singing together can hold hate against other groups of men.

Whether music will wipe out selfishness, suspicion, misunderstanding and hatred on a scale broad enough to benefit mankind in general obviously depends very much on what the singers sing.

HONEST AND LOYAL

A fitting tribute was paid yesterday at the funeral service to George W. Davis, for years mayor and city clerk and for a longer period engaged in local newspaper work.

Dr. Post, long a friend of Mr. Davis, referred to his genius for friendship, his kindness, honesty and loyalty. These characteristics belonged to George Davis in a remarkable way and made for absolute sincerity. A man who can measure up to such standards deserves esteem and good will. These were accorded to the former mayor in an unusual degree and so the regret for his untimely death is widespread.

RAILROAD SAVINGS.

It has been a wonderful year for saving. Citizens have saved more than usual, as shown by savings bank deposits and by investment figures. The government saved money. The railroads, too, come forward now with the news that they have saved the public a lot of money.

According to The Railway Age: "The total amount the public paid in rates from May to August, 1920, was $2,037,000,000. When the deficits the public had to pay are added and the taxes paid during these months by the railways are deducted it is found that the total cost to the public of transportation service rendered was $2,165,000,000 or about $616,000 a month. From May to August, 1923, the amount paid by the public in rates was $2,189,000,000. Deduction of the taxes paid by the railways to the public shows that the net cost to it of the transportation service rendered in May to August, 1923, was $2,074,500,000. This was less than $509,000,000 a month, also, and about $97,000,000 a month less than in May to August, 1920." The transportation service rendered has been better, too.

The business outlook is good, according to Jesse L. Livermore, known in Wall Street as the largest individual stock market operator. Livermore says:

During the past few years the people of our country have become accustomed to living on a higher standard than heretofore, and they are not going to be satisfied to live any other way in the future. The money they spend must necessarily mean a larger purchasing power, and that purchasing power is bound to keep business going at a good volume."

Livermore is right. Thrift—is a fine thing. But spending makes prosperity. For instance, people have been accustomed to buying autos. This buying makes jobs for the army of people engaged in manufacturing the cars.

In turn, these car makers spend the money they receive thus keeping busy the employees in other industries. The more we spend for legitimate purposes of production the more jobs there are—and the more prosperity to be divided among all of us.

Common sense, of course, shows us that when a man makes more and spends more, he also should save more.

UNDERSTANDING IS REACHED ON LIMIT FOR RUM SEIZURES

(Continued from Page One) sired that friction and embarrassment to foreign ships due to statutory restrictions on the carrying of sealed liquor stores on such ships in American waters should be done away with without the delay which has resulted from the attempt to obtain amendment from the Volstead act from congress.

Reason for Extension

In proposing the a 12 mile right of search for contraband liquor be granted the Washington government fixed upon that distance off shore as the minimum necessary to make the work of prohibition enforcement patrol craft effective.

As the British plan is understood here the flexible rule which the British would substitute for a rigid 12 mile limit would permit patrol craft to operate at an even greater distance off shore thereby improving the chances for curbing liquor smuggling.

Owned Restaurant But Nearly Starved

Thomas J. Costas, manager of the popular Manhattan Restaurant at 719 Common St., New Orleans, recently had the following to say regarding his experience with the Tanlac treatment:

"My advice to anyone suffering from stomach trouble is to take Tanlac—don't put it off a day, but take it now."

"I had stomach trouble so bad it looked like nothing could help me. Treatments—dying—even going without eating for days at a time did no good. The gas, bloating, heartburn and palpitation kept me in misery and I would lie in my bed nervous and sleepless most all night wondering if anything could relieve me. Well, I was losing weight and going down grade fast, but Tanlac has put me back to eating as heartily as any of my customers and never feeling a touch of stomach trouble. I've gained nine pounds, sleep like a baby, and never felt better in my life."

New York, Nov. 7.—(A. P.)—Charles M. Schwab, steel magnate, from time to time over a period of twenty years lent money to Miss Myrtle B. Hayes who now is under indictment for forging his endorsement to notes with which she attempted to finance a $5,000,000 hotel project in Brookline, Mass., he testified before a referee in bankruptcy today. He did this, he said, because in 1902 he had advanced the woman $2,000 and subsequent demands for money were based on the threat of publicity which would have resulted in placing an erroneous construction on his previous associations with her.

In an effort to prove Mr. Schwab's obligation to honor the note endorsements, which he asserts are forgeries, George F. Joseph, attorney for creditors of William C. Tobey, builder who said he failed because of his reliance on notes negotiated by Mrs. Hayes, questioned the steel ladder for an hour and a half. Schwab, in his answers, denied he had any interest in Mrs. Hayes' business deals or that she was authorized at any time to use his name to obtain money or credit.

STINNES, JR. IN U. S. ON BUSINESS

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Bugsy Stinnes, Jr., 26 year old son of the German industrial leader who is admittedly in the United States on "business" left for a tour of the Texas and Oklahoma oil fields tonight with Harry F. Sinclair, head of the Sinclair Oil company.

Young Stinnes arrived in Chicago early today. He carefully avoided newspapermen. Just before he left the city over the Illinois Central in Mrs. Sinclair's private car he admitted however that his visit to the United States was "a matter of business."

"I have nothing to say about my visit to the United States, it is purely a matter of business," he said. "I must follow my father's instructions and that policy is not to give out any interviews."

HUGE RESERVOIR FOR COLORADO IS PLANNED

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 7.—Two reservoir projects for the San Luis Valley in Southern Colorado, one for 1,000,000 acre feet of water and the other for 100,000 acre feet, were submitted for approval to Secretary of the Interior Work at Pueblo today by a committee of water users of the San Luis Valley. The larger project would cost between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000, and the smaller about $1,000,000 according to members of the committee.

After presenting the needs of the valley to Secretary Work the committee came to Denver today and sought the aid of Governor Sweet in the matter of preliminary tests of the dam sites.

CONVICTED MAN LOSES HIS APPEAL

Austin, Texas, Nov. 7.—D. E. Soderman, former Fort Worth hotel man convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to serve five years in Texas penitentiary for the slaying of J. Clay Powers, overseas major in the World war, playwright and hotel man at Dallas on April 18, 1922, lost his appeal before the state court of criminal appeals today. Powers was shot down in the lobby of his hotel at Dallas. Soderman's defense was the alleged seduction of his wife by Powers. In affirming the sentence the court said the records reveal nothing which in our judgment authorizes reversal."

BANKERS OF CASS ARE ENTERTAINED IN CHANDLERVILLE

Officers and Employees of Two Banks Play Host to All Others In County—High School Improvements at Chandlerville.

Chandlerville, Nov. 7.—One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was held in the parlors of the Congregational church in this city last Friday evening when the officers and employees of the local banks entertained at a banquet the officers and employees of all the banks of Cass county. Had it not been for the inclement weather the church would have been taxed to the limit. As it was something over one hundred partook of the bountiful repast that had been prepared for the occasion by the ladies of the Congregational church who never forget any of the good things to eat. The local officers and employees were ably assisted in the entertainment by their wives and the orchestra of the Methodist church furnished the music for the occasion. Immediately following the banquet Mayor Byus in a few well chosen words gave the Cass county bankers a hearty welcome to our city.

Mr. Williamson of the Illinois Bankers Association then gave a very instructive address on "Bankers Mutual Insurance." Mr. Williamson was followed by an address by Cashier Floyd M. Condit of the First National Bank of Beardstown which he insisted that an effort be made to get all high school pupils everywhere to start savings accounts. Talks were also made by Mr. Nicholson of the state auditor's office; W. S. Rearick, of Ashland; R. C. Taylor and Henry McDonald, of Virginia; J. G. Franken, and H. B. Bowe, of this city; Herman Englehardt and O. H. Nieman, of Aransasville are president and secretary, respectively and they extended an invitation to hold the next meeting in Aransasville, which was accepted. The next meeting will be held in April, 1924.

Attorney and Mrs. A. T. Lucas, Dr. J. G. Franken and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Arenz attended the Illinois vs. Wisconsin football game at the State University Saturday. The game was played in the memorial stadium. The Fletcher building formerly occupied by the Anderson shoe store, has been rented by the Central Illinois Public Service Co. which will be used for an office and for electrical supplies of all kinds.

BUILDING LABORATORY

Owing to the crowded conditions at the high school the community high school board has purchased a portable building, 21x30 feet to be used as a laboratory for the Circle A Product Corporation at Champaign, Ill. The building is now being erected in the school grounds adjoining the present building and the work is under the supervision of Stanley Trowbridge. This building complies with the state regulations as approved by the high school visitors office and no doubt assure the approval of the creditor's office.

Heretofore the laboratory equipment has been kept in the basement which has caused some of the instruments to become rusty and the high school visitor refused to accredit this department both on account of light and dampness in the basement. As soon as the portable building is ready to be occupied the manual training department will be moved into the room heretofore used as a laboratory. This will give the students much more room for work.

Death of Agd Lady

Caroline Gyp Rider, daughter of George and Lydia Gyp, was born in Tyerville, Clinton county, Penn., on August 7, 1912, and died at her home in Chandlerville, Ill., Saturday at the age of 81 years, 2 months and 20 days. At the age of 16 years she moved with her parents to Wayne county, Indiana, and in 1878 came to Illinois. Mrs. Rider was married three times, her last husband, Doctor Rider, having died in 1906. Her entire life has been spent in Chandlerville except the few years spent in Indiana. While she has been left to live alone for many years she has had the faithful companionship of her nephew, William Garner, who has been so good and kind in doing all he could to care for her. In 1876 she united with the M. E. church in which she always did her part to the support and maintenance of the church she loved so well; and from which she will be greatly missed.

There are left to mourn her going away: one nephew, John Martin; four great nieces, Mrs. Myrtle Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Gladys Wiedert, Mrs. Florence Staley and Miss Callie Garner, and two great nephews, William M. and Howard D. Garner, and many other distant relatives besides her many neighbors and friends.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Tuesday at 2:00 p. m. Rev. D. C. Byers officiating. Interment was in the village cemetery.

WHY BANKS FAIL TO JOIN THE RESERVE

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 7.—(A. P.)—Half of the banks in Nebraska that are not members of the federal reserve bank system fail to join because of resentment and the other half do not join because of the methods used by the federal system. Fred W. Thomas, vice-president of the First National Bank of Omaha testified today before the joint congressional committee which is investigating the failure of non-member state banks to join the federal system.

A section of the veterans opposed separate action in defense of the Jews on the ground that it was the business of the rich government to protect all citizens. It is understood however, that even this section now has been won over to the view that the menace against the Jews is too real to be overlooked.

BUSINESS IS SERVICE, POET TELLS AUDIENCE

"Jamie" Heron Speaks to Audience of 200 at First Forum Meeting—Recites Many Poems

"Business is, when understood, service for the common good." This and similar utterances formed the keynote of a greatly appreciated message delivered last night by "Jamie" Heron before a forum audience of over two hundred people. The Scotch poet made himself popular with his audience by his humor and the great spirit of good cheer which he radiated. His message was one of optimism, of belief in his fellow men. He said in part:

"One of the first essentials to life in a modern community is that the individual find himself and his vocation in life. The adoption of vocational training in the public schools is one of the finest things in modern progress; it enables young people to find themselves. And when a man has found his work, he becomes organized. I have talked to thousands of keenly intelligent people on the Bowery and in the slums of the cities. They are down and out because they are unorganized; yet they are educated. They have not found themselves or their work."

Defines Business

"What is business? Let us go back to the words of the Christ to find the definition. Business is service. That service is based on confidence. All men are true, if given a chance. If they are trusted, they will not fail; they never have. In the Latin quarter of Paris there is a store that supplies materials to artists. This business has been handed down thru several generations and it has always been the policy to trust absolutely those who came to purchase supplies. It is the record of that store that its owners have never lost a single son, all because they had absolute faith in their customers, and that faith inspired honesty."

"In business you are not simply there to get wealth or sell goods, but to give happiness to others and get it for yourself. If you have your eye on your customer's pocket, you cannot smile, and no one who cannot smile should keep a shop. You are not seeking his money, but to give him happiness. If he gets happiness out of what he buys, he will return for something else, for more happiness. In giving others what they desire, you are getting happiness for yourself. That is your big purpose, a selfish one; but the greatest unselfishness is selflessness."

"Never grow old. In living with others, in being familiar with your employees, in working, lies the secret of keeping young, familiarity with your workmen pays. Men are seeking leadership, and the logical leader is their employer. If he does not lead them, but acts as a driver, they will seek that leadership outside, and then there is usually trouble. Familiarity does not breed contempt, unless it is sincere. With it must go sincerity that will inspire the confidence of men, and then it pays."

The Community Debt

"You owe to your community, the place where you have won your success, some form of organized service. Your debt can be paid thru the organizations in the community which build up its moral force. The Chamber of Commerce is the center of these organizations and should include them all. A community wide movement should function thru the Chamber of Commerce. Every man, woman and child in the community who is worthy has a right to belong to this body. We must welcome the women into the Chamber of Commerce and give them a sphere of service. The people in a community must be bigger than the community as a man must be bigger than his message. Humility is the art of being big enough to be little enough to be big."

Mr. Heron recited many poems during his address, which added much to its interest. He closed with his beautiful poem on "Sunset."

Miss Elinor Capps, accompanied by Miss Alexander, rendered a number of violin selections. Following Mr. Heron's address, Fred High was introduced and gave a brief talk.

HAVE BEEN MARRIED FOR MANY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Coard Win Celebrate 57th Wedding Anniversary Today.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Coard of 127 Diamond Court will celebrate their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary at their home today. Seven years ago they celebrated with an elaborate observance their fiftieth anniversary. The worthy couple have been in Jacksonville for many years having moved here in 1890 from Waverly, where they had spent all their married life up to that time, having been married there in 1865, after Mr. Coard had returned from the army. Mr. Coard and Mrs. Coard have seen many interesting historical facts connected with the development of Morgan county. For a number of years Mr. Coard was in the undertaking business on East State street in the old Clover Leaf building, later selling out to C. E. Williamson of this city.

Five children have had homes with Mr. and Mrs. Coard, though they had no children of their own, they have made other children happy.

Three of these were his brother's children who are now grown to maturity. They are Mrs. Mary Radford, of Trinidad, Col.; Mrs. Morton Hackney, of Mesa, Ariz., and J. L. Coard of Indianapolis, Ind. The two last named were reared by Mr. and Mrs. Coard.

A formal observance of the day will not be held, but a number of friends are expected to call. Unfortunately Mr. Coard is in failing health, being confined to his bed the greater part of the time. Among the guests will be Mrs. Samuel Haggard, of Virden, and Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts, of Virden, also Robert Loving and family, who reside in this vicinity.

SECOND GAS STATION HELD UP LAST NIGHT

Two Bandits Rob Richardson Filling Station of $50 and Escape—Two Crimes Remarkably Similar

The second bold holdup of a filling station to be staged in this city in the past few weeks, occurred last night about 9:35 o'clock, when two unidentified men robbed the Richardson gas and oil station at the corner of South Main and College streets. The circumstances of the two holdups are strikingly similar.

Two men drove up in the Richardson station last night in a car. One went into the office and covered the keeper, J. A. Lutz, with a gun. Lutz was ordered to lie down on the floor, while the bandit took about $50 from the cash register. The stranger then left the station, got into the car, and the bandits drove east on college street. Lutz, however, was able to get a good description of the man who came into the office. He was of middle height, about five feet high, wore a gray overcoat and brown cap. He was sandy complexioned and had a round face. This description was later verified to police by a local citizen, who recalled having seen the two strangers loitering about town earlier in the evening.

Local police were on the job in ten minutes after the holdup. Thinking the bandits took the hard road, they drove a high-speed car for some distance in pursuit, but without result. Springfield police were notified and promised to keep a sharp look-out for the bandits. Other cities and towns were also alerted.

The description of the man who robbed the Richardson station is similar to that of one of the three bandits who recently held up the White Rock station at the corner of South Main and Morton avenue. The conditions of the robbery were similar, and the method used practically the same in both cases. It is probable that the same persons had a hand in the two crimes.

A four-door Ford sedan was stolen to C. F. Hieira was stopped in Tuesday evening from its parking place near Northminster church. No trace of the car has yet been found.

FIRE DESTROYS ROOF OF COCKIN RESIDENCE

Fire burned the roof off the residence of T. E. Cockin, 42 North Church street about 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The blaze is believed to have started from chimney sparks which ignited the shingles. It had spread over much of the roof before it was discovered.

Firemen made a quick run, and were able to save the dwelling. Most of the furniture was taken from the house, but put back after the fire was extinguished. Little damage to the remainder of the building was done, except by water. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

COUNTY MERCHANTS TALK OVER PROBLEMS

Hear Suggestions for Institutes and Entertainments by County Talent—Many Illustrations Cited

A merchants' institute for smaller towns in Morgan county, and the bringing of cheap and wholesome entertainment in the way of programs by county talent to these towns, were the two things suggested by Fred High yesterday afternoon at the conference with out-of-town merchants, held at the Chamber of Commerce. Although more than 50 merchants in the smaller towns of the county were notified and invited to the meeting, Chapin and Concord were the only towns represented, and only five merchants were present. These included J. H. Ellers of Chapin, and A. C. Cratz, Fred Giner and Mr. Blemling of Concord.

In spite of the small attendance, a spirit of good fellowship and willingness to find solutions for the problems of the small town merchant prevailed. Mr. High recommended the use of scientific study of conditions in the community as a means of getting at business possibilities. He advised the holding of merchants' institutes in the various towns, at which the merchants should get together in a sincere effort to find common ground for united business advancement. He suggested various methods of study of conditions, using concrete illustrations of what had been accomplished in other communities.

Methods as to how business might be turned from the mail order houses to the country merchants were discussed. The matter of building up entertainments in the rural communities by means of talent from Jacksonville, in order to take the place of the lyceum courses, which are a constant drain on the communities, was also considered. Mr. High is heartily in favor of such a movement, and made the same suggestions when he was in the city previously.

"Jamie" Heron also gave the merchants some valuable suggestions on co-operation and working together to build up the moral force in their communities. It is realized that many merchants are not competitors, but co-operators for the common good. The exercise of such a spirit in a community means greater progress. Examples of business men who have built up great enterprises in small towns were cited and used as illustrations of what can really be done.

PYTHIAN LODGE TO CONFER RANKS

Jacksonville Lodge No. 152, Knights of Pythias, has plans for an unusual meeting at their quarters on East State street next Monday evening. The second and third ranks of the order are to be conferred on at least four candidates by the crack degree staff of the lodge. A number of new applications for membership have been received recently, and it is hoped to have a large class ready to take the work at an early date.

At 6:30, preceding the formal meeting, an oyster supper for the members will be served. A large attendance is expected, as the work to be done is important.

SENIOR RECOGNITION AT I. W. COLLEGE

Senior Recognition, one of the most impressive ceremonies of the school year, will be observed at Illinois Woman's college this morning at 10 o'clock. At this time the Seniors will appear, for the first time in their caps and gowns.

Before the program, the faculty, in caps and gowns, will march into the chapel in academic procession; they will be followed by the Seniors. The Sophomores, dressed in white, will form a line, thru which the Seniors will pass and will be ushered to their seats.

The program, which has been arranged, will include the following numbers: The Class Song, an address by Rev. G. W. Randle, whose daughter is a member of the class and a vocal solo. The ceremony will be brought to a close by the singing of the college song, in which all the students will take part.

WILL CONDUCT LOCAL COOKING SCHOOL

A four day cooking school will be conducted next week beginning Tuesday and continuing thru Friday. The class will be held on the sales floor of the Illinois Power and Light company, and will be under the auspices of the Corn Products Refining company. Miss Edna Sullivan, a graduate of the Home Economic department of the University of Illinois will be director, and comes highly recommended as being very proficient in this line of work. Each day's program will be varied and will be given out from day to day. All demonstrations will be done on a Lorain Equipped Clark Jewel range. The public is invited to attend each session.

Supper was served at 6:30 and was followed by a short program, during which Mrs. Myrtle Tandy presided. J. Marshall Miller made talk on "Rebekah Oddfellowship," a reading was given by Mrs. R. T. Ebrey; and short talks were given by Mrs. R. E. Crabtree, Miss Hairgrove and others.

The committee in charge of the supper included Mesdames Zella Baldy, Lottie Hutchens, Alice Barr, Leila Riggs, Nellie Roberts, Ethel Henderson and Edna Roberts. Owing to the illness of the musician, the numbers in this class were omitted from the program.

Following the formal program the young people enjoyed music and dancing, and the older ones present spent the time in social visiting.

* RED CROSS ROLL CALL *

To the People of Morgan County:

In announcing the seventh annual roll call of the Red Cross, I said that it was my intention to call attention to our obligations to the disabled American Soldier and his family. I also said that the Red Cross had undertaken the task as representative of the people of fulfilling to the best of its ability the task imposed upon it.

That the public may be informed as to the scope of these activities I quote from the annual report of Mrs. Sullivan, the Executive Secretary of the Morgan County Chapter.

Secretary's Report of Work done from Oct. 1, 1922 to Oct. 1, 1923.

Total number of services rendered one year, 1597.

Jacksonville 590, County 289, State Hospital 650, Transient 31, R. F. D. 37.

By Branches—Alexander 34, Woodson 26, Murrayville 20, Meredosia 48, Lynvillle 5, Literberry 8, Chapin 30, Concord 32, Waverly 41, Franklin 29, Markham 6, Sinclair 12, Prentice 11, R. F. D. 37.

Outside of County—Bluff 13, Virginia 4, Beardstown 7, Tallula 1.

Visits made on behalf of clients 287.

Calls of clients at office 860.

Letters written on behalf of clients 1471.

The above is merely a synopsis of the work done. It must be considered that any one of the hundreds of cases mentioned in the report might easily involve many days of intensive work. I submit it as reasonable that none of us as individuals would care to do this work, therefore let us delegate it to an organization specially trained.

For the sake of the disabled American Soldier and his family. Join the Red Cross.

J. J. Kelly,
Roll Call Director
Morgan County Chapter

PAY FINAL TRIBUTES TO GEORGE W. DAVIS

Funeral Service of Former Mayor Held at the Congregational Church—Large Company Present

A large company of sorrowing friends gathered Wednesday afternoon at the Congregational church for the funeral of George W. Davis, former mayor of Jacksonville and long on the staff of the Journal. The remains were taken to the church at 10:30 o'clock and many friends visited the church between that hour and the beginning of the service.

A fitting tribute was paid Mr. Davis by Dr. R. O. Post, based upon a friendship existing thru more than 20 years. The service began when Miss Fern Haigh sang "Lead Kindly Light," with Mrs. G. E. Stickney at the organ.

Then Rev. Mr. Stickney read various passages of scripture full of comfort and hope and made brief comment upon the wealth of promise and immortality that the Bible gives. Then he offered a brief prayer. Dr. Post asked J. E. Scott, city clerk, to read a resolution with reference to the death of Mr. Davis, adopted by the city council.

Then Dr. Post read verses from the 15th chapter of John and then spoke from a full heart.

"George W. Davis," he said, "had a genius for friendship. It is twenty-one years now since I first knew him and I doubt if anyone walks our streets who met with more friendly greetings. His attitude called for kindly response even from animals and as he walked about children ran to him for a clasp of the hand. Everywhere this man evoked the kindlier feeling and the better nature.

"He loved nature and was never happier than when afield with dog and gun or with rod and line upon creek or lake. His love for nature was more than that of the mere sportsman and those who knew him well realized that he indeed sound sermons in stones and that he read from the book of nature the stories of real life. To him there was good in everything and he loved his fellow man.

A FRIEND OF THE HELPLESS

"Especially was there friendship in his heart for the 'under dog,' the sick and the helpless. It was that love of his for his fellow man that formed the basis for several of the humanitarian efforts that have made this city notable and which are today serving mankind. The victory for the tuberculosis sanatorium Tuesday could be traced back to the influence of this man, to the impetus which he gave to the open air school.

"It was George Davis who first made possible the employment of a police matron and other advances along humanitarian lines are attributable directly to his influence and spirit.

"George Davis was honest. Most of us are honest from a cash register standpoint but how many there are who can stand the test and prove thoroughly honest without deception, without parboil of any kind."

"In this my friend I found something royally loyal. He never said one thing and meant another, and no friend of his need fear that spirit of friendliness would change during absence or separation. Loyalty was a marked characteristic in all his relations.

"The life of George Davis was an open book. He led no Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde existence and whatever were his faults all knew them. He did not say one thing and then live another. As city clerk, as mayor and as newspaper man his record is written and kindness, generosity and honesty marked his pathway always. The record of his administration as mayor was one in which the city could take pride and we know that this life, come so suddenly to its end, was well worth while.

"So I count myself glad to pay just this word of tribute to one I knew and loved. No words more fittingly apply to him than those lines of Walter Foss, to this, our fellow citizen, who had a genius for friendship:

"Let me live in a house by the side of the road,

Where the race of men go by—

EARTHQUAKE VIEWS SHOWN AT WHITE HALL

Pupils of Schools are Guests of Management of Princess Theatre—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, Nov. 7.—Princess theatre was packed Wednesday at the close of school to witness the Japanese earthquake views, the pupils being guests of Manager Joseph Lyman, who opened doors for the free admission of the pupils. This is part of the new ideas of theatre management that are being invoked at this magnificent play house. Manager Lyman was in Jacksonville Tuesday in conference with theatre managers as to future productions. The local theatre has been scoring packed houses nightly for weeks, being the result of an extensive and judicious advertising policy that represents programs with drawing power from all over this section of Greene county.

Dr. W. T. Knox has received notice of his appointment as pension examiner for Greene county, succeeding Dr. O. L. Edwards of Roodehouse, who resigned.

A group of members of the local I. O. O. F. team participated in the conferring of the first degree on two candidates in the lodge at Greenfield Tuesday night. The report comes from Carrollton that Wm. Layver has been stricken with paralysis. Mr. Layver is one of the county seat citizens who is held in very high estimation all over the county. It is stated also that John Ferguson, now a resident of Detroit, Mich., has also been stricken.

Harry Cade was in the city from Murrayville on Wednesday.

There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me. Eugene M. ## Sister Mary's Kitchen

BY SISTER MARY

Do you ever cure ham or shoulder or bacon yourself? It may sound like quite an undertaking but it's really easy to do and very much worth while. A fresh ham is never as expensive as a smoked one at the butcher shop and if you can buy direct from a farmer the saving will amount to much.

Most butchers have facilities for their own use and are willing to take care of the smoking of meat for their customers.

While the cured hams and bacon on the market are very good you will enjoy some home-sugared ham.

To Sugar Cure Ham or Bacon

Five pounds salt, 5 ounces pepper, 1 ounce saltpetre, 1 pint molasses. This rule will cure 100 pounds of pork.

Rub one tablespoon salt around the bone of the ham and shoulders. Rub meat well with molasses. Mix salt, pepper and saltpetre and rub on the meat. Use about one-third of the whole amount the first time. Let stand three days. Repeat twice with an interval of three days each time. Let stand in a cool place for from four to six weeks. Smoke.

This method does away with fussing with a brine, but it's sort of "messy" rubbing the molasses into the meat, and the meat must be put into tubes while standing. Perhaps you will prefer the use of brine. Personally I think the meat runs less risk of being hard when a brine is used.

To Cure Pork With Brine

First rub each ham with 1 teaspoonful of powdered saltpetre. Rub around the bone with 1 teaspoon of pepper.

For 50 pounds of meat—Mix one and one-half pounds brown sugar with two cups salt and rub meat thoroughly. Put a layer of salt in the bottom of a large tub, put in the meat, skin side down and sprinkle with salt. Add more meat, cover and let stand for eight days. Then take out, wipe off all salt and wash the tub.

Take five ounces saltpetre, eight cups molasses, eight cups salt, two gallons water. Boil and skim. When cool pour over meat in the tub. The brine should completely cover the meat. Turn the meat once a week to be sure it is curing evenly. Let stand in the brine four or five weeks.

The bacon will cure in three weeks. Then take out and smoke.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

BADGER'S STRENGTH WORRIES ZUPPKIE

No Nut.
Cracker

By Joe Williams

URBANA, Ill., Nov. 7.—Bob Zuppkie is trying to cover a lot of ground as he prepares the Illini for their battle with Jack Ryan's veteran Badgers in the stadium Saturday. He is at a loss as to what kind of attack the new cardinal coach will spring, and "Zap" is drilling the Illini to meet everything from a rain of forward passes to a smashing offense.

When coaches meet each other year after year they begin to have a pretty good idea of the basic ideas of the other fellow's offense. But here is Wisconsin, with a new coach, schooled in eastern strategy, who sat in the Illinois stadium last Saturday and carefully scrutinized Illinois.

Wisconsin has been a stiff for Illinois in the past five years, although Zuppkie has a margin of three to two victories over his alma mater in the decade he has coached at Illinois. The record is:

Games won—Illinois 5; Wisconsin 3; tied 1. But the Badgers upset the Illini 3 years straight—1919, 1920 and 1921. The victories in 1919 and 1920 were dopeners and serious blows to the Illini.

The statement that the Illini scouts regard the Badger line as far stronger than Chicago's is not bunk. Just remember that Wisconsin played a nothing-to-nothing game with the Maroons last year. In fact, the Badgers had the better of it. Then note that most of the cardinals, who are coming to the stadium are veterans.

Holmes, one of Wisconsin's best backs, was a crack player in 1921 when he helped to lick Illinois. He was not at Madison last season. Irish and Nelson, ends, it is believed, will be stronger than the highly touted Midway wing men.

Fans are beginning to urge railroads to run special trains, motor trips are planned. Every day the ticket sale soars and the Illini hope for 25,000 or 30,000 persons. Of course, with capacity for 60,000, fans need not be nervous as there will be tickets up to the kickoff.

Athletic Council—Had Violated
Big Ten Conference Ruling

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 7.—E. C. Gerber, star tackle on the Wisconsin football team, was held to be ineligible by the University Athletic Council after a three hour session this afternoon. The committee's findings were based on a report of Athletic Director T. E. Jones who investigated charges that Gerber was employed as an athletic director at the LaCrosse Y. M. C. A.

The council found Gerber guilty of violation of the Big Ten may mean something at that. A lot of people take the two victories over his alma mater in the decade he has coached at Illinois. The record is:

Coach Rockne is a Norwegian which probably explains why the Notre Dame team is so typically American in its play.

EDITOR'S PROBLEMS ON COUNTRY PAPER

URBANA, Ill.—Problems of the country newspaper editor, as detailed for journalism students of the University of Illinois by B. B. Bates, publisher of the Farmer City Journal are seven: Getting the news, getting and holding subscribers, what to print and what not to print, getting to press on time, writing editorials, the editor's reading, and making the business pay.

"We have filed no such protest and have no intentions of filing one," Athletic Director T. E. Jones said tonight. He declared that Wisconsin is planning to protest no player on any other team. Gerber maintains his innocence of the charge of professionalism. He was before the athletic council for nearly three hours today and when he emerged from the meeting tears were streaming down his face.

Coach Jack Ryan had no statement to make.

IN GREAT VIOLINIST

Telmanyi, the great violinist who gives the second number of the Woman's College artist series, in Music Hall next Monday evening, Nov. 12, is not only the greatest Hungarian violinist, but also one of the world's greatest.

In the musical centers of Europe, his name is sufficient to fill any hall. This season, he is making his first general American concert tour. Last year, he played a few engagements in eastern cities. The New York Evening Journal said after his first New York recital, "Telmanyi is the most exciting experience of this sort one has had since Kreisler burst upon America."

Telmanyi is an artist of such prodigious technical equipment that he can play the most difficult violin literature which is forbidden except to the very greatest artists.

The Jacksonville appearance next Monday evening will be awaited with enthusiasm by all music lovers, who truly appreciate the great art. The program will be announced thru the press later in the week.

Community High School Opens Basketball Season Friday Night—Complete Schedule Given

Winchester, Ill., Nov. 7.—The Winchester Community High School opens its season Friday night, Nov. 9, with Milton furnishing opposition. Local fans are looking forward to the best season in the history of the school, as Coach Rutherford has four regulars left from last year's championship aggregation.

Rutherford is a graduate of the Indiana State Normal. Results obtained by him last year prove him to be one of the best coaches in Western Illinois. His swift short pass system has proven to be the most effective way of producing a champion team. Rutherford intends to carry off the honors from the Western Illinois Basketball Tournament to be held at Jacksonville, Ill., March 1, 1924.

The present squad of 30 men will be held until December first, when Coach Rutherford will cut the number to 15. Undoubtedly, the team will be built around the four men left from last season, namely, Ross, Tankersley, Lashmett and Markable. However, there are a number of candidates bidding for regular berths, the best being Savoy, Feller, McDonald, Dole, Ryan, Rutherford, Miner, King, Watt, Miller and Reavis.

The schedule calls for 22 games with the addition of the Second Annual Invitational Tournament, to be held here February 1 and 2, 1924. There will be 12 or 16 teams participate in the Winchester tournament.

Although Winchester has the largest and best equipped gymnasium in western Illinois, with a seating capacity of 1,200 spectators, it is expected that additional seats will have to be provided before the season ends.

The complete schedule is included.

The varsity had more than the usual trouble occasioned by striking a new assortment of plays and the youngsters continued to make heavy gains.

Herb Jackel, who was injured early in the season, was back in uniform and was used for some time at tackle.

Zuppkie is also using Harold Neal, sub-center at guard this week, bent on developing him into a substitute for Captain Jim McMillen.

Health!

BEAUTY is the magnet which draws all eyes—and back of beauty—Health—working silently. Red blood tingling through the veins;—the glow of youth in the cheeks;—the spring of eagerness, of vim, of vitality in the walk;—the ever graceful air, unrestrained by care or worry.—All the works of health.

Men are fascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous, perhaps—wondering—hoping—praying that attractiveness that is not theirs.

But why the wondering—the praying for that craved-for attractiveness—that beauty. Good looks is the barometer of one's condition. Good health radiates beauty. S. S. purifies the blood—creates new red blood cells—rids the system of impurities which make beauty and attractiveness impossible. As women to attract must radiate health so must they keep their systems free from impurities and their red blood cells ever increasing. S. S. does both.

S. S., since 1826, has been ridng the system of impurities—pimples, blackheads, boils, eczema and rheumatism—building red blood cells—aiding women to be attractive by radiating health. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks, scientifically prepared and proportioned. All good drug stores carry S. S. It is more economical to purchase the large size bottle.

FRIENDS NOTICED IMPROVEMENT

Wonderful Results from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bethel, Wis.—My female trouble was brought on by overwork. I had worked in stores and had to do heavier work than my strength could stand, and had to be on my feet most of the time. Finally I had to give up this work entirely and stay at home. Doctor's medicine did not give me much relief, and my mother wanted me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took a couple of bottles of it and thought it did not help me as much as it should, so I gave it up to try something else. Nothing I took helped me much, so I finally decided to give the Vegetable Compound another trial and to take enough of it to make sure it would help me. I have taken it over a year now and it has brought wonderful results. I have gained from 90 to 110 pounds and am keeping house now. My friends all notice the change in my health. I will be glad to answer all letters that women write to me about the Vegetable Compound.—Mrs. W. G. MONSON, 1615 Park Ave., Beloit, Wis.

Mrs. Monson is willing to write to any woman suffering from such troubles.

HERE IT IS: Our Mr. Goldstein spent Tuesday in the buying market and here is what he found. Manufacturers, because of a backward season wanted to unload their top-heavy stocks. In this he saw an opportunity for Jacksonville. He offered a certain manufacturer of high grade coats and dresses a low figure on a big lot. The manufacturer accepted. Of course this stock could be sold in the regular way but that's not our way of doing business. We are passing our saving on to you. Come in and see Thursday. You'll be astonished.
